

PEACE RIVER SOUTH FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS 2017

Sponsored by

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Peace River South Festival of the Arts is:

- to foster and showcase students in the performing arts, in a positive, caring, and instructional environment
- to help students realize what the performing arts are, how to participate in the performing arts, and why the performing arts are essential to individuals and society as a whole

OBJECTIVES

The Festival is used as:

- a performance showcase
- a vehicle for specialized instruction in the performing arts
- a cultural experience to be enjoyed

GOAL DESCRIPTIONS

Performances are showcased at the Kiwanis Performing Arts Centre.

The instructional aspect for performances takes the form of clinician's comments to the performers after the performance and, in some cases, through special workshops.

The cultural aspect of the festival is achieved through scheduling. Participants are able to watch other performers in their category.
